'POP" HALLEY OFFERED PRESIDENCY OF DUCKPIN ASSOCIATION FOR YEAR

is Name Is Most Prominently Mentioned by Members of Board of Directors as Head of Organization-Election to Take Place Wednesday-Brockton Names Date.

By KIRK C. MILLER.

H. B. Halley, better known to the duckpin community as "Pop" Halley, oday has the refusal of the next presidency of the Washnigton City Duckin Association. The election of officers for the 1914-15 season will take lace at the Palace lowling alleys next Wednesday night, and Halley's riends are backing him to the last word, for the leadership of Washingon's one organized duckpin body.

"Pop" Halley has not even so much as announced himself as a candiate for the position which his well-wishers would elect him to, but his worth to the game has asserted itself emphatically during the season which is about to close, and he will be prevailed upon to accept the honor chich practically the whole city would lay at his feet. Halley is now a nember of the board of directors of the association, but his responsibiliies in that capacity are soon to come to an end, and at that time his name to be presented for thepresidency of the local duckpin organization.

HALLEY HAS NOT EXPRESSED HIMSELF.

position which is proffered him by 'ashington's foremost small-pin colis a detail of which his friends on e board of directors, which body of en have the power to elect the ofers, have not yet been assured. A raw vote taken among the ten memers of the board of directors revealed substantial majority in favor of Haland as no other candidate has been prominently mentioned, Halley today thought to be in direct line for the ggest job obtainable within local duck-

Secretary Goldberg has been instructto call the City Duckpin Association gether next Wednesday night for purpose of electing officers and impleting details for the rifth annual arnament of that body. This latter cut is likely to be staged at the Palcalleys.

Ten members composing the board of rectors will have the say as to who ill head the association for the enill head the association for the ening year. Their names and the varish duckpin leagues which they reprent are given hete: H. B. Hailey, Namal Capital League; William Boyd, epartmental League; C. A. Borden, istrict League; David Fegan, Southen Clerks League; John Dunn, Combia League; H. T. Rodler, Combercial League; H. T. Rodler, Combercial League; J. R. Costinett, Arade League; C. G. Farwell, Y. M. C. League; H. H. Sherwood, Arcade League, and Frank McLaughlin, Interpuncii (K. of C.) League.

Now that Brockton has settled upon a definite date on which it is willing to entertain the Washington all-star duckpin team, March 29, Chairman Meany, of the finance committee is asking all who have profered dona-tion to make cash returns at the earliion to make cash returns at the earlissible date.
